1st Griffiths: Lanfrese Calvaro

This 13 month Br/w bitch is certainly one to watch for the future, really classic in outline with good bone yet so feminine, correct shoulder placement, straight front, lovely head, good mouth & chin, well- shaped eyes promoting that mischievous expression only a boxer can. Good firm body with strong hindquarters and good angulation. Tight feet good coat condition.

2nd Pynegar: Highcrest Coco Chanel at Berwynfa (imp MLT)

Again another 13 month Br/w bitch well – balanced, different type but hard to separate these two quality juniors, Feminine head, dark eye of good shape, nice rise of skull, teeth and lip placement good with evident chin, crested neck flowing into good shoulders and level top line, good hindquarters and angles fore and aft allowing her to move well. Just preferred the expression of one.

Special Award Class Post Graduate Dog/Bitch

Entries: 13 Absentees: 5

1st Murfin & Renshaw-Turner: Farvalley Shooting Star

This Light Br/w feminine bitch shows an abundance of quality & breed characteristics. Having an excellent head type and expression with a well-padded muzzle and stop, good rise of skull and expressive eyes. Excellent straight front and nice arched neck that flows into a good laid back of shoulder, leading into a firm back and straight top-line. Well balanced both front and rear with correct angulation, strong hind quarters which she used to her advantage to drive around the ring.

2nd Clayforth: Casual Affair with Faerdorn.

A stylish B/w dog, Well-constructed and in correct proportion. Beautiful head balanced muzzle to skull, defined stop, well set ears & dark eyes promoting a good head type. Good mouth and well-padded muzzle, Beautiful arched neck which flowed into a level top-line. Well-developed fore chest and a nice tuck up, good strong hindquarters with correct angulation. Showed a strong ring presence pushed 1 very hard.

1st Overall Best Special Award.

Cook & Postance: Manic Heart of Glass.

Very Classy and compact Br/w bitch very pleasing to the eye in profile the cleanest of lines, very sturdily built on good bone, balanced construction allows her to stand four square. Excellent head type, well set ears, dark expressive eyes, good mouth and well- padded muzzle and a lovely wicked expression. Clean shoulders and good chest with a lovely flowing neck. Well –proportioned body and level top line and plenty of substance and bone. Good hindquarters and correct front and rear angulations. Tight feet and good coat condition. Moved well with positive action for her handler.

2nd. Clayforth: Casual Affair with Faerdorn.
